

APPLICATION

The Perry A. and Helen Judy Bond Fund for Interdisciplinary Interaction at The University of Iowa

The College of Liberal Arts and Sciences invites proposals from CLAS faculty for special interdisciplinary events that:

- Promote interactions among faculty and students in areas of cross-departmental strength.
- Draw scholars from other institutions to our campus as presenters and as audience.

Please note: The form below is completed by the faculty member(s) making the proposals and submitted to the the Assistant to the Associate Dean for Research and Infrastructure by the DEO(s), who also submit a confidential letter concerning the value of the project and the support the Department is contributing.

Name:	Date:
Department:
What is the format and dates(s) of the event? It may include a conference, performance, exhibition, lecture series, symposium, workshop, or any combination thereof.
What is the interdisciplinary focus of the event? Describe its potential for bringing visibility to cross-departmental areas of faculty strength and cross-departmental interests of our students.

Which UI faculty have committed their participation? Include organizers, presenters, panelists, respondents, and performers. CLAS faculty must be included, but faculty outside the College are also welcome to participate.

Identify external participants who would be invited as presenters, speakers, panelists, or performers.

Budget. Include support anticipated from other budget sources (e.g., conference fees, other internal or external funding sources). We expect most awards from the Bond Fund will be up to $5,000.

Amount requested from Bond Fund:

$

The DEO(s) should submit the application form and confidential DEO letter to Catherine Moore (catherine-moore@uiowa.edu) by the deadline set by the College. Please see the CLAS Resource website for the most up-to-date policy: <https://resource.clas.uiowa.edu/policies/research/bond-fund-interdisciplinary-interaction>
Proposals should be submitted four months in advance of the event for which support is sought.